

PERMITS ARE REQUIRED FOR

Residential construction

Building permit approval is required prior to the construction of the following:

1. New homes
2. Additions to homes, garages; decks
3. Decks, Porches
4. Deck roof, Porch roof
5. Remodeling or alteration of the structure, which involves changing structural or supporting members.
6. Chimneys and built in fireplaces
7. Swimming- pools over 24 inches deep (in ground & above ground)
8. Spas and hot tubs - indoors and outdoors
9. Finished basements - permits may be required when converting a basement to a finished area.
10. Changing means of egress.

Commercial construction

Building permit approval is required prior to the construction of the following:

1. New commercial structures
2. Additions to existing structures
3. Alterations and renovations to existing structures
4. Change of use, changing from one use group to another
5. Installation or alteration of plumbing, heating, or electrical systems
6. Roof - any work to an existing roof other than ordinary repairs
7. Change of means of egress

If you have any question whether your project requires a permit please contact

Harold Ivery Jr
Building Code Official
(724)263-0377
mcservices111@gmail.com
Website: <http://www.uniontwp.com>